British Columbia has lost a legend, the media has lost a champion, and we all have lost a friend. We are devastated by the sudden loss of Shelley Fralic. Her contributions to journalism are immense, enriching our lives with her words, wit, wisdom and big personality. Shelley continued that impact as a trustee for the Jack Webster Foundation, thoughtfully offering insight and guidance while championing the future of journalism. Her love of storytelling was clear in everything she did. She was never afraid to roll up her sleeves and get things done – and she did it with determination and a wonderful sense of fun. Shelley has left us far too soon. We will miss her. We already do.
