

Few female journalists do what Penny Daflos does. She asks the hard questions, holds those in power accountable and is compassionate. Her relentless pursuit of the truth has earned her a reputation of one of the most dogged journalists in BC.